NEWS TRACKER APPLICATION

Literature Review

- News Droid is an advanced and informative system intended to assist an organization and its users in learning about news, articles, and other fascinating events taking place within their organization.

- This system allows members of the organization to stay informed about what is going on in the world.

- If any users post abusive, irrelevant, or false information, the administrator will investigate and take appropriate action.

- This system also allows different organizations to post their advertisement.

- This system allows the users to choose their interesting news domains and the news were showed based on their interest.

- News based on the user interest saves the time for the user.

- There will be an admin to supervise, to verify the truthfulness of the news and to remove the unwanted news.

- The users should create an account and use the login credentials sign in the application.

- The user details and their preferences will be stored int cloud storage.

- The technology stack used here is HTML 5, CSS 3, Java script, Python, IBM DB2, IBM cloud, Docker, Kubernetes, Flask etc.